Step 4: Notice about Attendance Requirements

Your program’s staff will do all the necessary work to verify to the Office of Early Care & Education (OECE) that their program meets the established quality standards for an OECE funded ECE program.

Regular attendance, according to your enrollment agreement with the ECE program, is required by all families whose enrollment is funded by OECE.

Illness and family emergencies are “excused absences” and are explained in your provider’s policies or handbook. In addition, OECE-funded children are allowed up to 10 (ten) additional excused absences during the Program Year. These additional 10 absence days include absences for any reason that does not qualify as illness or family emergencies, such as vacation, time with a parent or relative, etc.. Given limited resources, OECE must terminate funding in instances where the child exceeds 10 of these absences (often referred to as “best interest of child” days by some programs).

Your ECE program staff will familiarize you with their process for verifying daily attendance (such as signing-in and signing-out regularly), and establishing reasons for absences. Please be aware that exceeding the maximum allowable unexcused absences will result in your program losing the funding that supports your child’s enrollment and you could lose your space in the program.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENT

By signing below, I acknowledge my understanding of the Attendance Requirement and understand that excessive non-attendance will result in termination of the Office of Early Care & Education funding that supports my child’s enrollment.
